What are your hobbies and talents?

Hobbies involve things centered around fitness and health- I love weight training, high intensity interval training, crossfit, and cooking and eating healthy meals. When I'm not working out I enjoy reading, mostly about things related to local and national politics. I'm a very good juggler.

How do you express your creativity (music, painting, drawing, writing, graphic design, dancing, singing, etc.)?

I love listening to music (mostly electronic music) and enjoy going out dancing in clubs to see artists whose music I follow.

What are your favorite foods? Middle eastern and Mediterranean food- Shawarma, kebabs, falafel. I also really like Korean food- bbq, bibimbap, japchae. Mexican food too- tacos, burritos, rice bowls etc.

What is your favorite animal? Dogs- particularly Corgis!

Where would you like to travel and why?

Spain. I've already been a couple times but there is still so much to see. I like going there because I'm able to utilize my Spanish daily, plus they have amazing food and a great electronic music scene. I'd love to go to Taiwan next for similar reasons - great food & electronic music shows.

What makes you laugh?

Spending time with my family and friends while we all make our inside jokes and reminisce about the memories we've created. I also love watching shows about current events & politics through a comedic lens, like Last Week Tonight with John Oliver.

What is the one thing about you that everybody should know?

Empathy and compassion are at the center of who I am and what I strive to exhibit towards the people in my life.

GENETIC FAMILY HISTORY SUMMARY

A three-generation family medical history was elicited from the donor by a Reproductive Genetics Specialist and is summarized below. This information is collected to help evaluate the risk for inherited disorders in the donor's offspring and the donor's eligibility for participation in this donor program. It is provided to assist in donor selection but is not a guarantee of the health of any future child.

RISK ASSESSMENT

There is a 3-4% risk for birth defects in all children regardless of their method of conception, usually for conditions that cannot be tested for or predicted based on one's family medical history. There is no evidence of an increased risk, above the general population risks, for any health problems in this donor's offspring based on the information reported, other than the risks specified below:

NONE

Prospective recipients are encouraged to discuss their own family histories and their donors' family histories and genetic test results with their personal healthcare providers to help determine if the donor is suitable for their reproductive needs.

Medical Profile

As part of the donor screening process, a donor applicant completes a family history screening form and indicates any known family members with a range of health conditions including those listed below. After this initial intake, the donor meets with a Reproductive Genetics Specialist who elicits, documents, and assesses the family medical history in further detail.

The donor's family medical history collected during that evaluation is summarized for you on the previous pages. We recommend that you discuss a donor's family medical history with your personal healthcare providers and/or a genetic counselor prior to using gametes from a donor so that you can be fully informed about the medical conditions reported, any health risks related to that donor's medical history, as well as the general population risks for health problems.

Example of Health Conditions Evaluated During a Donor Applicant's Family Medical History Screening

When you think of this person, what words, ideas, and/or memories come to mind?

Extremely compassionate and accommodating. She's always putting herself before others and is consistently in a good mood and carries an authentic smile on her face. The many times she'd walk me to elementary school where we would just talk are some of the many favorite memories I have with her, especially when we would play handball right before school started. Also, staying up late with her after my sister and dad went to bed to watch some tv shows and movies.
